Head Scout's daily report

Reporting date: 11.04.2012

The patrol in the afternoon came across the resident lioness on her own close to the salt lick trying to stalk a herd of zebras. Unfortunately the zebrsa were on high alert and saw her before making any move. she moved just by the salt lick and watched the zebras head towards the sundowner spot without stopping. The vehicles on afternoon game drive saw her and she never moved. The cubs must have been not to far from the place.
